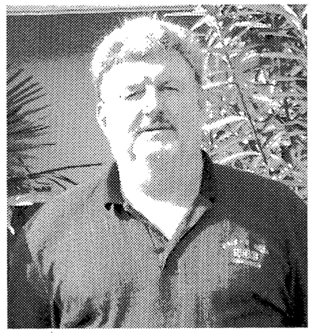
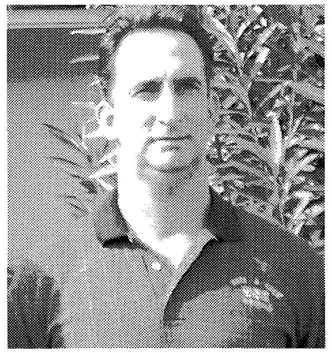
Saint Stanislaus Football Coaching Staff

Head Coach



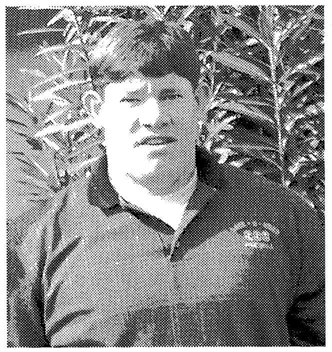
The 2000 season marks Coach Dave Kenson's fourth year as the head football coach for the Rock-a-Chaws. A native of Parma, Ohio, Coach Kenson has 23 years of experience as a football coach on the collegiate and secondary levels. Since earning his degree from the University of Cincinnati, Coach Kenson has coached at his collegiate alma mater, at North College Hill, The Bolles School, Fletcher High School, and Bishop Kenny High School. Coach Kenson also coaches the Junior Varsity Basketball team and is the SSC Golf coach. He and Sharyn, his wife of 34 years have one son, Kelly.

Defensive Coordinator

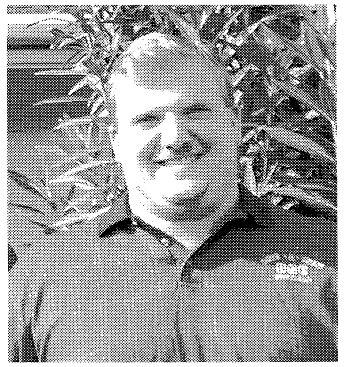


Coach Stan Dellenger is a native of Biloxi, where he attended Notre Dame High School. He attended and played football at USM from 1976-1980. His years of coaching experience including stints as head football coach, athletic director, and weight trainer, In his seventh year with the Rock-a-Chaws, Coach Dellenger is coordinator of the SSC chapter of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA) and teaches Religion. He and his wife Rose have two children, Ross and Evelyn.

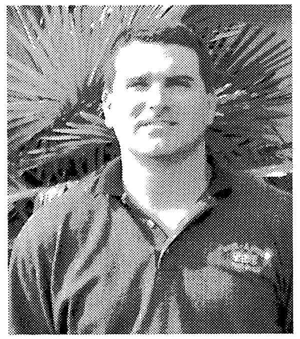
Assistant Coaches



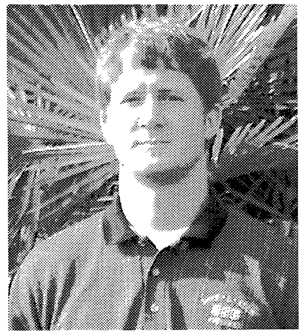
Coach Will Seymour is in his fifth year at Saint Stanislaus. A lifelong resident of Bay Saint Louis, Coach Seymour is a graduate of Bay High and attended Pearl River Community College as well as William Carey College. As Junior High football coach, Coach Seymour was named Sun Coast Conference Coach of the Year for 1999. He also serves as head Varsity Baseball coach for the Rocks and teaches in the Physical Education Department. He and his wife Jenny have a son, Wes, and a daughter, Jill.



Coach Mike Stumpf comes to Saint Stanislaus from Erie, Pennsylvania and is starting his third year at SSC. He holds a degree from Indiana university where he also played football. Coach Stumpf teaches Religion and coaches basketball as well as football.



Coach Bryan Keys is a native of Collins, Mississippi and a graduate of USM. He has taught and coached at Collins High School. Coach Keys is married with two children.



Coach Matthew Burris, a graduate of Jones Junior College and USM is from Mize, MS. Along with coaching football, Coach Burris also coaches Basketball. In the classroom you will find him teaching english, spanish and journalism.
